

Answer Key

The Ant and the Grasshopper

1. B) To work hard and toil
2. C) An ear of corn
3. B) It thinks it's unnecessary
4. A) Dies of hunger
5. C) To work hard and lay up food for winter
6. The Grasshopper learns the importance of preparation and hard work. The lesson underscores the necessity of planning for the future and not being complacent in the face of abundance. It teaches that anticipating and addressing future challenges, akin to the Ant's preparation for winter, is crucial for survival and well-being.

Reading Comprehension

7. D
8. D
9. B
10. A
11. A
12. B

Reading Comprehension

13. C) The celestial dance of stars
14. C) Awe-struck
15. C) Possible
16. B) The stars are actually meteors.
17. B) They burn brightly.

18. Lucy exclaimed in surprise and followed its ephemeral brilliance.
19. They are fragments of rock, mostly no larger than a grain of sand, burning brightly as meteors.
20. About 50 miles above Earth.
21. In the past, people had a mix of wonder and fear, but in the present day, falling stars are a source of joy and amusement.
22. The once-feared phenomena becoming a source of joy implies a shift in perspective, fostering a connection between humanity and the vast wonders of the universe. It suggests that by appreciating and finding joy in celestial events, people establish a positive and awe-inspired relationship with the mysteries beyond our world.

An Exciting Fishing Trip

23. weather
24. washing
25. month
26. whales
27. sixth
28. truth
29. This
30. What
31. them
32. fish

33. B) Going fishing for the day
34. D) Six times
35. B) Fishing gear
36. B) The beauty of the whales
37. C) Respecting the ocean and its inhabitants
38. They had forgotten to bring their fishing gear.
39. The locals offered to lend them fishing gear.
40. The presence of a pod of whales swimming nearby.
41. They learned about the importance of respecting the ocean and its inhabitants.
42. The unexpected encounter with the friendly locals and their act of kindness turned what could have been a disappointing fishing trip into an inspiring and humbling experience, making the main characters appreciate the beauty of nature and the generosity of people.