18. is
19. are
20. strays
21. stray
22. was
23. has
24. hopes
25. hope When 'each' or 'every' comes after the compound subject, a plural verb -- 'hope' -- is appropriate.
26. reminds 'Rice and beans' is one dish, so we need a singular verb to agree with it.

27. vote Replacing "a large number of" by "a lot of" will have the same effect.
28. is The quantity of 'four years' here is meant to be taken as a whole, as one quantity, so the verb should be singular.
29. is
30. seem 'Economics,' in this case, means any number of aspects of or facts about the country's financial health, so we need a plural verb. When the word 'economics' refers to the course or the discipline, it is singular.

Sentence Fragments

31. My brother was always my best friend when I was a child, especially as we two were almost alone in the world. We lived with our old grandmother in a little house, almost a shack, in the country. Whenever I think of him now, I see a solemn, responsible boy, a boy too old for his years, who looked out for me no matter what. Once there was a bully, John Anson, who looked enormous to me, though he was probably an average twelve-year-old. John had it in for me because he liked Littice Grant, who liked me. He decided to beat me up right before her eyes. I was lucky my brother came by. He didn't interfere any. He just stood there. Somehow, though, his presence gave me confidence. I licked the stuffing out of John Anson. If my brother hadn't been there, I don't think I could have done it.
