

Answer Key

- |       |                                      |                                      |
|-------|--------------------------------------|--------------------------------------|
| 1. B  | 43. B                                | (known to frequent the               |
| 2. B  | 44. D                                | suburbs).                            |
| 3. A  | 45. C                                | 55. Answers should be similar |
| 4. A  | 46. E                                | to : It will be full of       |
| 5. C  | 47. E                                | acorns and will probably             |
| 6. D  | 48. C                                | be a tree or telephone               |
| 7. C  | 49. A                                | pole.                                |
| 8. D  | 50. B                                | 56. Answers should be :       |
| 9. B  | 51. amusing; funny.                  | Downy, acorn, gila/                  |
| 10. B | 52. a sharp projection near          | red-bellied/ hairy,                  |
| 11. B | the end of an arrow,                 | northern flicker,                    |
| 12. A | fishhook, or similar                 | pileated.                            |
| 13. C | item, angled away from               |                                      |
| 14. D | the main point so as to              | 57. Answers should be :       |
| 15. D | make extraction                      | Acorn – C                            |
| 16. B | difficult.                           | Gila – F                             |
| 17. A | 53. characteristic of one            | Red-Bellied – B                      |
| 18. B | person or thing, and so              | Downy – A                            |
| 19. C | serving to distinguish it            | Hairy – G                            |
| 20. B | from others.                         | Northern Flicker – E                 |
| 21. D | 54. Answers should be similar | Pileated – D                         |
| 22. D | to : The woodpeckers          | 58. Answers should have :     |
| 23. C | need to be in the                    | One woodpecker,                      |
| 24. B | geographical area of the             | drawn. Three facts not               |
| 25. C | student's home. So,                  | connected to the                     |
| 26. B | students living in the               | reading.                             |
| 27. D | East cannot see an                   |                                      |
| 28. D | acorn woodpecker or a                | 59. D                                |
| 29. A | Gila woodpecker.                     | 60. C                                |
| 30. A | Outside of that,                     | 61. D                                |
| 31. A | students should expect               | 62. A                                |
| 32. D | to see red-bellied                   | 63. C                                |
| 33. B | woodpecker (common                   | 64. tentative, unsure, or            |
| 34. B | in the suburbs), downy               | slow in acting or                    |
| 35. A | woodpeckers if they                  | speaking                             |
| 36. D | have birdfeeders (fond               | 65. (of a person or small            |
| 37. C | of suet), hairy                      | animal) move hurriedly               |
| 38. B | woodpeckers (because                 | with short quick steps               |
| 39. C | they have the same                   | 66. of momentous or                  |
| 40. C | range as the downy),                 | ominous significance;                |
| 41. C | and Northern flickers                | self-important or                    |
| 42. A |                                      | pompous                              |

67. Answers should be similar to:
 All sorts of garbage, including sewage, is directly tossed onto the street and even tossed out of the window.
68. Answers should be similar to:
 Crows, second pgh
 Trees, third pgh
 Shooting stars, fourth pgh
69. Answers should be similar to:
 Din probably means a lot of noise, because the narrator describes people “shouting, calling, arguing, laughing,” etc. Also, since the din burst upon the narrator’s “ears,” we know that “din” must be something that is heard.
70. Answers should be similar to:
 A lot of noise
 A big crowd
 A bunch of strangers all at once
 The terrible smell
 The chaos that is a “big city”
 City architecture
 Many doors and windows
 Funeral colors on livery
 A bunch of storefronts all in a row
 Signs
 White bread
 An abundance of meat
 Taverns
71. Answers should be similar to:

Many people in a big crowd
 Animals inside the crowd
 Roads made of stone
 Open sewer in the middle of the road
 Cramped stone buildings with their second and thir stories built so that they extended out over the road
 People throwing filth out the window
 Many storefronts with multiple signs
 Lots of doors and windows